COMMENT ON STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

Sir:

In reviewing the Statement of Reasons for Allowance in the Office Action dated August 12, 2005, applicant noted that the elements the Examiner discusses in the Statement are not present in each claim. If the Examiner's position is that all of the elements referenced in the Statement of Reasons for Allowance must be present in each claim for the claims to be allowable, the Examiner is respectfully requested to withdraw the allowance and to render a formal Office Action substantiating such a position. Otherwise, the file history of the present application will reflect that each claim has been allowed by reason of combinations of elements actually recited therein.
